Good morning, boys and girls. My name is Barb Seidhof. It's very nice to be here today. I'm on the staff of Lakeside Theatre - you know that, don't you? In preparation for your visit to the theatre next week, your English teacher has asked me to tell you something about the background of this famous play by Shakespeare that you've been studying, right? Well, he wrote this in 1601, over 400 years ago. Its title – 'Twelfth Night' would have been familiar to people then because in the time of Shakespeare, Twelfth Night was the last night of the Christmas holidays, a time when people gathered together for feasting, dancing and singing. In towns and villages throughout England, people celebrated until January 6th, the feast of the Epiphany, which was the twelfth night of Christmas. So when Shakespeare chose 'Twelfth Night' as the title of his play, his audience knew that they were going to enjoy themselves at the theatre, and see a play full of fun, music, dancing and laughter. And that's what you'll be seeing next week...

No, I don't know how long it'll be there, I don't know how good the garage is. OK, right, what about tomorrow? Same time tomorrow, I think things will be fixed by then. So let's say 7.00 tomorrow.
- 9a. Hallo yeah?... The payment? Oh, wait a second.. but I did pay my... Oh, you're not calling about the payment? Credit card? Oh, come on, sir. Oh, my god, I mean I thought it was Listen, I'm sorry, I'm not interested in any credit cards, OK? I mean, I've had enough of these people calling me, no I have a credit card already, thank you very much. Sorry, please don't call this number again. OK, bye.

OK, yep.. the name is Denton, Denton with a 'D', not Benton.

- Woman: Hi, David.

David: I went to work as usual, and then, you know, around lunchtime I went out to get myself a sandwich, and guess what? I realized that I'd I don't know I'd misplaced, I'd lost my wallet. My wallet wasn't in my pocket.
Woman: Your wallet?
David: Yeah. My wallet. Even though I had it with me this morning, you know, it wasn't there. So what did I do...
Woman: What was in it?
David: Well, OK, I had 50 euros, the money wasn't really the problem.
Woman: Credit cards?
David: Yeah, I had...
Woman: And driving licence?
David: Yeah, credit cards, driving licence, the whole... It was crazy... so...
Woman: So what did you do?
David: So I had to ... first of all I had to call all the banks, to cancel out all the cards, and it took me the entire afternoon, like 3 hours.
Woman: I can imagine.
David: Alright, and just to top things off at the end of the day, what happens, I got a call from the supermarket, the manager and he told me that he had found my wallet. So I wasted all my afternoon.
Woman: So, did you go and take the wallet?
David: Yeah, yeah I went and picked it up.
Woman: And was everything in it?
David: Yeah, everything was there, everything was there. But I am just so frustrated because I had to waste all my afternoon. You know, cancelling cards, calling banks, you know when you deal with them they are bureaucratic.
Woman: And was the money there as well?
David: Yeah, the money was there.
Woman: So you had a really good afternoon.
David: Yeah, it was one of those interesting afternoons.

ACTIVITY 2

Listen and fill in items 6b-10b with the right word, as in the example.

- EX: Well, my father built it when I was about 8 years old. He was quite good with wood, he was quite a good carpenter. It was very high off the ground and I suppose a little bit dangerous and the only way you could actually get to it was by a rope ladder. Now it had one room and a little veranda and I spent hours there reading books and all sorts of things and we even had little parties with my friends.
- 6b. I visit lots of them but there's a particular beautiful one near where I live. It's white, it's overlooking the sea. I mean I'm not a religious person but I really believe that most places of worship just are intrinsically peaceful places and they're ideal for sitting there in quiet contemplation. I don't go when the congregation is there or when there's a service, I go at other times when it's quiet, there might be the priest pottering around lighting candles but, you know, that's all.
- 7b. This is really important to me. I know it's not very big, but that's fine because I don't need... don't have time to keep it up. But for me to sit outside with the trees, flowers, the grass under my feet and... Because I grew up in the country it's always been important for me to, for my house here, to be able to walk out the back door and feel this connection with nature, with the natural world.
- 8b. You might think it's rather shallow, you know..., spending money in this time of crisis, spending money on things like this. But I have to say, it's something that's really important to me. The minute I open the door and just get the smell of shampoo, and you can hear the whirr of the driers, I just relax. And I really think that having a good cut can make you feel like a million dollars. They even give you a head massage.
- 9b. This place brings back a lot of memories. I remember we used to come here with my friends, like after partying, like 5 o'clock in the morning and it was packed. Well, because the service was excellent, the food was great and they actually worked around the clock for some time for many many years. And famous actors used to come here to dine because they had these special dishes, and you can actually see their autographed pictures on the wall.
- 10b. This we have right behind our house on the island and it's wonderful to climb up. We do this every year – take a trip. It's about 1000 metres high but it's a wonderful thing to do, it takes us about 2 hours to climb. You're up there at the top, beautiful trees, obviously smells, and there's this fantastic view over the sea to Skiathos. And there's a little church right at the top.
